TE A Letter from England,—The following is noisressed to Mr. JOHN NICHOLSON, Chief Engineer of the Cunsard steamship Asia, which shows the estimation in which BOGLE'S celebrated HYPERION FLUID for the hair is held wherever it is known.

Liverproof. Sept. 6, 1851.

My Deak Six—May I trouble you to bring me six bottles of Bogle's Hyperion Pluid when you next return? If you know Mr. Rogle, you can tell him from me I have used his Find for same time, and make though thing I can get to know Mr. Bogle, you can tell him from the I have used his Find for same time, and make though thing I can get to keep my hair in good condition, and quite free of sourf. I am satisfied that were Rogle's Hyperion Fluid more generally introduced into England, it would fast supersede all other articles manufactured here for similar purposes. Hoping you may have a good run out and home, I am, yours always,
